Truman Heartland Receives Regional Honor at 22nd Annual MARC Regional Leadership Awards Ceremony

EASTERN JACKSON COUNTY, MO. (June 6, 2017) – Truman Heartland Community Foundation has been named the recipient of a 2018 MARC Regional Leadership Award for their Community for All Ages Coalition initiative.

These annual awards honor individuals and organizations for their leadership and excellence in advocating regional concepts; advancing the vision of the region as a community of excellence; applying innovative solutions to regional problems; and achieving improved quality of life and equitable opportunity for the region’s citizens.

Truman Heartland will be recognized for their work with the Community for All Ages Coalition, which focuses on three primary areas of need;

- Connecting seniors and caregivers with information and resources;
- Mobility and transportation needs
- Social and civic engagement.

The event, hosted by the Mid-America Regional Council, will be held on Friday, June 8, 2018.

About THCF

Truman Heartland Community Foundation (THCF) is a public charity committed to improving area communities by promoting and serving private giving for the public good. Founded in 1982, THCF serves the region with assets of more than $45 million and annual grants surpassing $3 million. THCF serves individuals who, through their private giving, wish to support the public good and helps them do it in the most tax-wise and effective manner. Through the Community Foundation, donors can set up their own family foundations, scholarship funds, field of interest funds, endowment funds, charitable gift annuities and many other charitable vehicles, which utilize shared resources of the Foundation to maximize the impact of their philanthropic dollars. In addition to donor services, the Community Foundation provides asset development for nonprofit organizations, awards grants to nonprofits, assists organizations in planned giving and serves as a leader in addressing community issues. For more information on charitable giving, visit www.thcf.org or call THCF at 816.836.8189.
